

Trescott Street Gallery Call to Artists

We Are All Connected:

Roots Through the Generations

February 5 - 28, 2025

A Black History Month Exhibit at Trescott Street Gallery

Trescott Street Gallery, in collaboration with T.R.U.E. Diversity, invites artists to submit work for consideration for We Are All Connected, an exhibition celebrating Black History Month. This exhibit explores themes of unity, resilience, and the interconnectedness of all people and generations. We welcome artwork from all artists that reflects these themes and strongly encourage submissions from the BIPOC community. However, artists of all backgrounds are invited to apply if their work aligns with the exhibit's theme. The exhibit will open with the Black Art Expo, an opening reception that highlights diverse voices and creative expression. Submit your work and join us in honoring the power of connection through art.

We will consider a wide range of artistic mediums for this exhibit, including but not limited to:

Painting, Photography, Sculpture, Printmaking, Drawing, Textile Art,
Digital Art, Video & Installation Art. To apply, complete the form at this link:

<https://form.jotform.com/24345558080056> or scan the QR code.

All work should be ready for display. Please visit our website for delivery instructions and guidelines. A 20% commission is collected on all sales.
